Ocean State Sandwich Company is a collaborative effort of two generations of the Handwerger family: mother and father, Lorrie and Alan, and son, Eric.

"Our goal," says Eric Handwerger, "is to provide delicious and inventive lunch choices that feature local, quality ingredients, and to accommodate the desires both of customers who are looking to eat healthy and those who are looking for an indulgence. So while you'll find an abundance of hearty, healthful sandwiches, soups and salads, you'll also find our Ultimate Grinder or BBQ Pulled Pork."

"We're food people," he concludes. "And here in Rhode Island, where we're surrounded by an abundance of farms on the one side and dedicated small food producers on the other, it's just a perfect situation."

We love to cook!
